

EDUCATIONAL JUDGES SEMINAR

February 14-15, 2009

Quality Inn Airport—Nisku, Alberta

The educational judges seminar is aimed at judges, exhibitors and spectators at AQHA, APHC, and APHA shows. The events that will be covered are western pleasure, hunter under saddle, reining, working cow horse, cutting, western riding, trail, showmanship and horsemanship/equitation. You will be judging video classes, there will be no live classes.

The seminar will be under the guidance of Joe Carter, who has both judged all of the major stock horse breeds World Championships as well as been employed by the AQHA and APHC to be overseer of the judges at the World Championships for both AQHA and APHC, as well as the All American Quarter Horse Congress and the US National Championships for the APHC. Mr. Carter is also presenting the Educational Judges Seminar for the AQHA yearly in Texas.

This seminar is being sponsored by the Appaloosa Horse Association of Alberta and the cost to AHAA members is $125.00, with the non-member cost being $175.00. AHAA Youth members are $75.00, with non-AHAA youth being $100.00. This does not include lunches, however there is a restaurant on site that will be open for our participants. Sunday, the restaurant will be offering a limited menu for our members only. Just for comparing costs, the same seminar that is being offered by AQHA in Texas is $350.00 US funds. Limited space is available, please register early.

The seminar will start at 9:00 AM and run until approximately 5:00 PM both days with coffee breaks and a lunch break being integrated into the schedule. Rooms are available at the Quality Inn for $119.99 plus tax single or double. If you have any questions do not hesitate to call Laurie Knox at (780) 922-3391.
